The Collect of the Day

Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (2002) alt.

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O Jesus Christ, teacher and healer, you heard the cry of the blind beggar when others would have silenced him. Teach us to be attentive to the voices others ignore, and, by the power of the Spirit, respond in your name to heal the afflicted and welcome the abandoned; for your sake and the sake of the gospel Amen.

The Lesson

Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Job answered the LORD:

“I know that you can do all things,
and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’

Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

‘Hear, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you declare to me.’

I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you;

therefore I despise myself,
and repent in dust and ashes.”

And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job’s daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children’s children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Lord has done great things for us, and we are glad in-deed.—

- 1 When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy. Antiphon
- 3 Then they said among the nations, *
"The LORD has done great things for them."
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O LORD, *
like the watercourses of the Negev. Antiphon
- 6 Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves. Antiphon

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.” So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

What's Happening at All Saints

Faith Conversations Begins Today: Bishop Akiyama is coming to All Saints on December 15! If you are interested in being baptized, confirmed, received into the Episcopal Church or reaffirm your faith during her visit, or just learn more about the Episcopal/Christian tradition, we invited you to join us in the weeks leading up to it. Deacon Maureen Hagen, Alan Murray and Rev. Andria Skornik are leading the sessions. We will begin with an overview offered after both services. The remaining will take place Wednesday evenings on Zoom. Please let us know if that time doesn't work for you if you. To sign up, please reply to priest@allsaintspdx.org.

Sunday, October 27 – Kids Halloween Processional: Sunday October 27, kids, wear your Halloween costumes and participate in the opening processional in church. Then you can go to Godly Play.

Sunday, October 27th at 4:00pm – Dark Classics *A Somewhat Scary Halloween Concert: Will feature works by Bach, Prokofiev, Rachmaninoff and more and be presented by Daniel Resch (Organ) and Michael Denison (Piano & Synthesizer). If you were around the building last Spring, you may have heard them practicing here in the church. They are amazing. The concert will be held at TaborSpace/Mt. Tabor Press at 5441 SE Belmont St. There also promises to be Trick or Treating around the building from 3:00 – 5:00.

Tuesday, October 29, 2024 - A Season of Prayer: For an Election. For the third US Presidential election in a row, Forward Movement calls on Episcopalians and all others to join in A Season of Prayer: For an Election. This year's prayer novena—nine days of devotional prayers—calls upon God for discernment in voting and for the well-being of our nation. Each day's prayer comes from The Book of Common Prayer and will be shared on Forward Movement's Facebook and Instagram.

Sunday, November 3 – All Saints Sunday Celebration: We celebrate saints who have gone before us with special prayers and lighting candles. You can bring in a picture of your loved ones beginning October 27 through November 3 to place on the remembrance tables in the worship space. There will be a reception in the Parish Hall following the services. Please note, Daylight Savings ends on this Sunday.

Sunday, November 10 – Birthday Celebration: Please join us after the 10:15 service in the Parish Hall. We'll be having a party and treats in honor of LeRoy Goertz turning 80 years old! There will be pie and other treats and you're all invited. (No presents necessary, just your delightful presence!)

Boiler Start Up: Thank you to our terrific heating team—Jon Pitner, Johnny Foley and Chuck Martin who completed the fall startup of the boiler, so we have heat. There was a minor repair completed this week, so all is functioning well. There is also a 20-page pictorial manual created by this great team for future reference. Please take the time to thank them.

Grubby Sunday: A dozen bags plus 3 green bins full of debris from pruning and clean up were generated on grubby Sunday. We had a great turn out and many hands made for completing much work. Thank you one and all. (Note Laurie is sending some pictures to Andria to use as well).

Sunday, November 17th – Grubby Sunday 2: Leaf clean-up is scheduled for November 17th. It would be great if we had 1-2 pickups to carry the leaves away to the leaf dump. If the urge strikes you to rake in the meantime, there will be a supply of brown yard debris bags in the basement below the entry. We also have 3 green bins which can be used as well. Otherwise come join us on the 17th for a leaf raking party after Sunday service. Light snacks will be served.

Study Leave: Rev. Andria will be taking one of the two yearly clergy study weeks, beginning November 11 through November 15 and will be out of the office. Please contact office@allsaintspdx.org for assistance while she is away.

Support the Hurricane Relief Fund: Reach vulnerable communities devastated by hurricanes and other catastrophic storms through Episcopal Relief and Development. Your gift will provide partners on the ground with critical supplies, such as food and water, pastoral care and other urgent needs, as well as assist with the long-term efforts needed to rebuild and heal. Learn more at episcopalrelief.org.

Sacred Ground groups are forming now in our diocese – These groups, mostly on Zoom, allow us to learn and grow in our understanding of racial history and racial justice/injustice in our country. Readings and discussions are carefully crafted and spiritually informed. Contact Deacon Meredith Pech at meredithp68@gmail.com for more inform! Highly recommended -- Deacon Linda.

Additional Parking Reminder: On Sundays, additional parking is available in the Wine Deli parking lot. Please consider parking there or in the neighborhood if you can to make the church lot available for those with limited mobility.

Outreach

Outreach October 18 & 19: The Pantry served groceries to 163 households, representing 244 individuals. We served 31 bags of ready-to-eat food. Hot Meals served 66 meals inside and sent out 60 sandwiches to-go.

Clothing Closet Needs: Our clothing closet doesn't have enough of what our community needs; can you help? We are in serious need of the items noted below! For the time being, please concentrate your generous gifts on these:

- Clean jeans in good repair --sizes 34 waist and larger!
- Hoodies and fleeces, again, large sizes; black are preferred.
- Lots of warm socks (preferably new for longer wear)
- Sturdy raincoats
- Warm gloves and plenty of them!

If you can share this information with your friends and neighbors, that would be a help. We have limited space in the closet and we will really appreciate your filling our spaces with these much-needed items.
